MEDIA ADVISORY

Thanksgiving food distribution for the community happening tomorrow

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II, Alderman DiAndre Jackson, Alderman Mark Chambers, Jr., and former Alderman Khalif J. Rainey will be hosting a community food distribution event to support families in need this Thanksgiving. The event will take place tomorrow – Wednesday, November 25, from 1- 3 p.m. at the Sherman Phoenix Marketplace, 3536 W. Fond du Lac Ave.

The food distribution event is entirely free and open to the public, while supplies last. Items to be given away include whole turkeys, hams, and complete meal kits with a variety of side dishes and other Thanksgiving meal essentials.

"Everyone deserves to enjoy a warm, comforting holiday meal this time of year. We want to thank our tremendous partners Visit Milwaukee, Carnevor, The Firm Consulting, Associated Bank, MFA Local 215, 3rd Street Market Hall, and the Milwaukee Admirals for helping make this event happen," said the Common Council members.
