Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett released the following statement on today's news that Milwaukee County will receive $12.7 million in federal funds to pay for express bus routes:

“Today's decision by the state Department of Transportation to support Milwaukee County's request for $12.7 million of reallocated KRM funds is good news for transit riders and employers who need workers to have connections to their places of employment. It's also positive for regional cooperation as this was supported by the City of Milwaukee and the seven county regional plan commission.”
