Mayor Tom Barrett issued the following statement regarding today's incident at Madison High School:

“Today’s violent incident at Madison High School and Thursday’s after school fight at Washington High School are inexcusable. Students arrested and charged must be held accountable by their families, Milwaukee Public Schools and the courts. All of us, but in particular, parents, family members and MPS must be loud and clear in stating that there is no tolerance for the behavior exhibited over the last two days.”
