Alderman Davis and Community Leaders to Speak Out on Shooting

Ald. Joe Davis, Sr. will join neighborhood and community leaders on the corner of N. 64th St. and W. Stark St. TODAY at 3:00 p.m. to host a news conference to discuss the senseless shooting in the area yesterday.

“First, we are gathering to express our deepest sympathies for the family of the young woman who was killed. The family should know they have our support,” Ald. Davis said. “We are also taking a stand against and will not tolerate the cruelty and violence this act exemplifies. The killer should be made aware that they will be caught.”

The young woman was shot in the face by a masked assailant in the 4900 block of N. 64th St. early Tuesday morning. Police have still not caught the killer.
