Alderwoman Asks Residents To Join Her At Health Fair

Local Event Brings Services Together

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs will be part of a major community effort to bring a wide variety of health services to one place on Saturday, August 22, 2009. The Community Health Fair at Robert M. LaFollette K-8 School, 3239 N. 9th St. brings together school registration, school immunization offered by the City of Milwaukee Health Department, Badger Care info sessions and more.

“I am thankful to the wide variety of sponsors and community partners that have pooled their resources to provide one-stop shopping for health information and services,” Ald. Coggs said. “Staying informed about health options and meeting the well-child needs of our school children is essential in our community and I encourage everyone to stop by the health fair and take advantage of the available services.”

Other local elected officials will also participate including County Supervisor Toni Clark and State Senator Lena Taylor. A number of local schools and community groups have contributed time and resources to the event as well.

Sponsors include Keefe Avenue School, Green Bay Avenue School, Hopkins Street School, African American Immersion High School, WNOV 860, WJMR 98.3, Fox 6, CW18, My24, TV 61, WMCS 1290, V-100, The Milwaukee Times, Northcott Neighborhood House, Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare, Wisconsin Donor Network, City of Milwaukee Health Department, Milwaukee Health Services, Junior Achievement, Community Health Improvement for Milwaukee’s Children, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Milwaukee Police Department, Word of Hope Ministries, Inc., Social Development Commission, Next Door, Milwaukee County Department of Health and Human Services and the Wisconsin Department of Health Services.
