NBA All-Star Devin Harris 34 Ways to Assist Toy Drive at Parklawn Y Tomorrow

Tomorrow (Saturday, December 19, 2009) Alderman Willie Wade (District 7) will take part in a special holiday toy drive to benefit Parklawn YMCA children sponsored by Devin Harris' 34 Ways to Assist Foundation. The event will take place at 1:30 p.m. at the Parklawn YMCA, 4340 N. 46th St.

Also assisting with the toy drive with gift wrapping and the toy giveaway will be: Alpha Kappa Alpha (AKA) Sorority, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Abri Health Plan representative Sue Miller, YMCA staff, Bruce Harris (brother of Devin) and Devin's parents, Julie and Terry Harris.

Alderman Wade said he is honored to be taking part in the 34 Ways to Assist Toy Drive. "Once again, I would like to thank Devin Harris for helping children in the community. It is his way of saying thanks to the community and city that helped raise him," he said.

Harris, an All-Star point guard for the New Jersey Nets and native of Milwaukee, has worked with Alderman Wade on several community events over the years, giving back to his hometown and the community. "I hope the children of Parklawn enjoy these gifts this holiday season, in the spirit of my foundation. I want them to continue to learn, be respectful, and work under positive leadership. I believe in their bright future," Harris said.

The news media is invited to attend.
