Meeting Tonight to Address Flooding Issues on Far South Side

Alderman Terry Witkowski will host meeting at Cooper School

Alderman Terry Witkowski will host a public meeting at 6:30 p.m. at Cooper School, 5143 S. 21st St., to address issues related to flooding caused by the July 22 storms that dumped record rainfall totals in Milwaukee. A representative from the Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District (MMSD) and the sewer engineering division of the city's Department of Public Works (DPW) will attend and will be available for questions.

Space at the meeting will be limited.

Alderman Witkowski said rainfall totals from July 22 supplied by DPW show that the 13th Aldermanic District received 8.2 inches of rain in less than three hours – second only to the city's 7th Aldermanic District – which received 8.9 inches.
