Alderman Robert J. Bauman Appointed to National League of Cities Transportation Panel

Milwaukee Alderman Robert J. Bauman has been appointed to the National League of Cities' (NLC) 2012 Transportation Infrastructure and Services Steering Committee, a panel responsible for developing policy positions on issues involving transportation, including planning, funding, safety and security of public transit, streets and highways, aviation, railroads and ports.

As a member of the committee, Alderman Bauman, chair of the Common Council's Public Works Committee, will play a key role in shaping NLC's policy positions, while advocating on behalf of America's cities and towns on Capitol Hill, with the Administration, and at home.

According to the NLC, the chair of this year's Transportation Infrastructure and Services Steering Committee is Lee Dunlap, council member, Plano, TX. Serving as this year's vice chairs are Ron Roberts, mayor, Temecula, CA, and Patsy Kinsey, council member, Charlotte, NC.

For more information on NLC's other committees and councils, visit <http://www.nlc.org/influence-federal-policy/policy-committees>.

The National League of Cities is the nation's oldest and largest organization devoted to strengthening and promoting cities as centers of opportunity, leadership and governance. NLC is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million Americans.
