MEDIA ADVISORY

Second Street Pride Project to Include Benches and Walking Path

A neighborhood beautification project meant to transform a vacant lot into a small park will be taking shape with the help of volunteers and residents from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. tomorrow (Saturday, July 9) at N. 2nd St. and W. Keefe Ave. (weather permitting), according to Alderman Milele A. Coggs.

Six planter benches and a walking path are part of the 2nd Street Pride Project in the 3400 block of N. 2nd St. Materials that will be used for the project are being donated by the north shore Home Depot on N. Port Washington Rd.

“This is a very positive improvement project that will help transform an unused space into a valuable public space that people in the neighborhood can enjoy,” said Alderman Coggs. “I want to thank the volunteers who will be helping make it a reality, and I also thank the north shore Home Depot for generously donating the materials for this positive community project.”

What: Planter benches and walking path install

When: 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, July 9
