Church to host Voter ID Forum Tonight

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs and other officials to participate

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs will take part in an informational forum on the state's "Voter ID" law from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. tonight (Monday, December 5) hosted by Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, 2207 N. 2nd St.

Others also expected to take part in the forum include: state Senator Spencer Coggs; Milwaukee County Supervisor Willie Johnson Jr.; Milwaukee County Supervisor Nikiya. Harris; Stephanie Findley, chair of the City of Milwaukee Election Commission; and Attorney Karyn Rotker.

Alderwoman Coggs, who has expressed concerns about the law since it was first drafted as Wisconsin Senate Bill 6 earlier this year, said the forum will provide an opportunity for residents and groups to learn more about the law and for information to be shared about how voters can avoid being disenfranchised at the polls next spring.

The new law requires voters to show a Wisconsin driver's license, a state-issued ID card, a military ID, a passport or a naturalization certificate.
