MEDIA ADVISORY

Town Hall Meeting Tonight at Siloah Lutheran School

Alderman Milele A. Coggs will host a 6th District town hall meeting tonight (Thursday, September 29) that will include discussions about city services and the proposed 2012 city budget.

The meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m. in gymnasium at Siloah Lutheran School, 3721 N. 21st St.

Alderman Coggs said representatives from the Milwaukee Police Department, the Department of Neighborhood Services, the Department of Public Works, and the Department of City Development will be on hand for questions and discussions of city services. A representative from the Budget office will also be on hand to talk about the Mayor's proposed 2012 city budget, which was released on Tuesday (September 27).

"I am really hoping residents will join us to discuss important issues that are impacting their neighborhoods and our city as a whole," Alderman Coggs said.
