Alderwoman Coggs Chairing Urban League National Day of Service Event

Young professionals' block party tomorrow in Bronzeville (Saturday, June 11) to focus on health and wellness

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs is the chair of tomorrow's health and wellness block party, an event sponsored by the Milwaukee Urban League Young Professionals. Mayor Tom Barrett will also attend and speak during the event.

The free Urban League national day of service event will run from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow on N. 5th St. between W. North Ave. and W. Garfield Ave. – in the Bronzeville African American Cultural Arts and Entertainment District. There will be booths and tables focusing on health and wellness topics and initiatives, and there will also be food, prizes, and games.

Alderwoman Coggs, who will deliver welcoming remarks at the event, said young Milwaukeeans are encouraged to attend the event and obtain information and ideas that can help them maintain their health and have a better quality of life. "The Urban League Young Professionals have put together an event that will present some very helpful health, diet, and wellness facts and information in a fun atmosphere," she said.

Mayor Barrett will speak on health and wellness prior to what is being described as an attempt at the "World's Largest Zumba Class" for the Guinness Book of World Records.
