Produce Market to Mark Grand Opening Tuesday

Alderman Jim Witkowiak will participate in the 3:00 p.m. grand opening celebration of the newly expanded Pete's Fruit Market tomorrow (Tuesday, January 10) along S. Muskego Ave., just south of the intersection of W. Greenfield Ave. and S. 17th St.

The store, owned by Pete Tsitiridis, was originally an open-air market that operated under a tent. In 2000 the business moved into a 4,000 square foot space at 1400 S. Union St., and the newly expanded location includes approximately 25,000 square feet. The business is known for selling fresh produce to a diverse clientele representing nearly every racial and ethnic group in the city, Alderman Witkowiak said.
