MEDIA ADVISORY

Youth Council members to take part in cleanup and community walk

Members of the City of Milwaukee Youth Council will be taking part in community activities tomorrow (Saturday, April 21, 2012) in conjunction with Global Youth Service Day.

Keenan Gibson, Youth Council member and chair of the Recreation Committee, said the activities will allow members to take part in recreational events focused on community interaction. The event will start at 10 a.m. at Master Lock at N. 32nd and W. Center Streets, with a neighborhood trash pickup and community walk. "Afterward we will walk to the Boys and Girls club located at N. 34th and (W.) North (Ave.) for an event with refreshments, fun recreational activities for youth, and a play and show for the volunteers," said Keenan, who helped organize Youth Council participation in Saturday's events.

Youth Council President Zach Komes said Saturday's activities will come "just at the right time because our community desperately needs interaction and neighbors helping neighbors." "We are very excited to get involved in the Global Youth Service Day festivities alongside hundreds of thousands of other young people around the world," he said.
