MEDIA ADVISORY

High school students will march against gun violence, deliver petition to local leaders

Alarmed by recent violence nationwide and led by students at Riverside University High School, young people and community activists from across Milwaukee will march to City Hall this afternoon to deliver petitions calling for stricter gun laws.

Marchers will gather at Gordon Park, 2828 N. Humboldt Blvd., at 4:00 p.m. to collect signatures and set out for City Hall. They expect to arrive within an hour, and plan a news conference with Ald. Ashanti Hamilton, Nik Kovac and Milele A. Coggs at 5:00 p.m. in the City Hall rotunda.

Leaders with the Riverside University High School Student Government said they organized the signature drive, and reached out to students at other schools to involve them as well. They welcome all concerned community members to participate in the march this afternoon.
