MEDIA ADVISORY

Couple to receive 2013 Frank P. Zeidler Public Service Award

Reuben and Mildred Harpole will be presented with the 2013 Frank P. Zeidler Public Service Award tomorrow (Wednesday, September 4) morning at City Hall. A presentation will take place in the third floor Common Council Chamber anteroom at 8:30 a.m., prior to the start of the regular Common Council meeting at 9 a.m. (in the Council Chamber) at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

The Harpoles have long served as mentors, role models and advocates for those looking to get ahead and prosper, particularly young African-Americans. They have been tireless advocates for the City of Milwaukee, deeply committed to supporting the work of nonprofits with their time and energy, and the couple has embraced the concept of community service with a special drive and humility.

The honor is awarded annually recognizing city residents who best exemplify former (and the late) Mayor Frank P. Zeidler's legacy of social justice and civic accomplishment. The award was established by the Common Council to recognize leaders in the city who have not served as elected officials.
