6th Annual FREEDOM SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY Contest

A major objective of this contest is to assist our college bound recent High School graduates in the Milwaukee area to better understand where their paths lead. We hope that this contest will help our youth appreciate the sacrifice that African-American men and women of our past have made, and recognize their duty to continue the legacy of freedom through their activism and vigilance.

2013 Scholarship Essay Contest Topic

Students responding to this year's writing contest should analyze the concept of "freedom" and then, in a essay of no more than 1000 words: (a) analyze why it is so vital that the remembrance, history and lessons of freedom be passed to a new generation; and (b) suggest what they, as students, can do to combat and prevent prejudice, discrimination and violence in our world today. See contest rules below for complete details and submission requirements.

In preparation for writing, students should research information from a variety of sources to assist them in the study of the celebration of freedom. Primary and secondary source material could include: historical and reference material; interviews; oral testimonies; official documents and other primary sources; readings from diaries, letters, autobiographies and works of poetry; video or audiotapes, films, art, CD-ROM and Internet sources.

Eligibility

To be eligible all students must be City of Milwaukee residents and recent high school graduates (2011, 2012, 2013) who attended a public, private, parochial school, home school, or are participating in a high school correspondence program in the City of Milwaukee. Preference will be given to residents in the 6th District.

Students who are not planning to attend a two or four year college in the fall of 2013 are not eligible.
