Alderman Joe Dudzik: A life well-lived

Statement of Alderman Joe Davis, Sr.

May 22, 2015

Yesterday, my wife and I celebrated the gift of life my parents gave me. So as you can imagine, when I woke up this morning and heard the sad news of my colleague Alderman Joe Dudzik's passing, it was a shock.

He fondly referred to me as his twin, and I would always shoot back that you could tell us apart by the fact that he had been blessed with hair.

Life's journey can hit you when you least expect it. So now, as I continue to celebrate my gift of life, I will always cherish Joe's memory.

Be blessed, brother. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has seen your work, and he is well pleased. Much love to Lynn and the family.
