Aldermen To Express Frustration With Recent Department of Public Works Snow Removal

With this weekend's snow now crusted with ice and another storm on the way, Alds. Terry Witkowski, Bob Donovan, Joe Dudzik, Ashanti Hamilton, Jim Bohl, Tony Zielinski, Michael Murphy, Robert Bauman and Robert Puente will be addressing the Department of Public Works' plowing strategy. The aldermen will talk with the media today, December 4, 2007 at 1:00 p.m. in the City Hall rotunda. In a response to constituents, DPW explained that the plowing this past weekend was done with fewer trucks in order to save money, but the aldermen and many residents are dissatisfied with the results.

"We must find an appropriate solution to snow removal that satisfies safety and resident needs in a timely manner," Ald. Witkowski said.

"I have been inundated with calls from angry constituents. We're all frustrated and this must be dealt with now before we feel the full impact of winter weather," Ald. Donovan said.

WHAT: News Conference on snow removal
WHEN: 1:00 p.m. Today (Tuesday, December 4, 2007)
WHERE: City Hall Rotunda, 200 E. Wells St.
