

Booth Street Stair

N Commerce and N Booth Streets

The Booth Street Stair is a new pedestrian link connecting the once separate Riverwest and Beerline neighborhoods. The modern design, composed of concrete and steel, takes the typically functional typology of a stair and creates an exciting architectural statement along the streetscape.