

The Flying Hicca

5000 W Vliet Street

The renovation of an inappropriately-remodeled building into an open, inviting storefront enlivens the street by projecting the creative spirit of the business it contains. Big, cheerful windows allow for interaction between inside activities and pedestrians.