

Milwaukee Youth Arts Center

325 W Walnut Street

The former warehouse facility was completely renovated into a state-of-the-art center specifically for performing arts training, creating one of the most unique facilities of its kind in the United States. The Milwaukee Youth Arts Center's design incorporates educationally appropriate acoustics and specialized spaces, has adequate office and storage space, and provides exceptional educational outreach opportunities.