LaDonna Sanders Redmond is the founder and lead organizer of the Campaign For Food Justice NOW! CFJN is an emerging national membership organization whose mission it is to advocate for the human right to food and to create a national food and agriculture platform and organize civil society to engage politically in public policy formation that supports the U.S food system.

In the winter 2011, Ms. Redmond moved to Minneapolis to launch a national food and justice program at the Institute For Agriculture and Trade Policy (IATP). Spring 2013, Ms Redmond left IATP to launch the Campaign for Food Justice Now! WWW.CFJN.ORG.

Ms. Redmond is an engaging public speaker. In 2013, she has spoken at Tedx Manhattan, University of California, University of Minnesota, Oregon Department of Public Health Conference, Organic Valley WomanShare conference and National Council on Foundations annual meeting. Ms. Redmond attended Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio.

TonySchultz and KatBecker own and operate StoneyAcres Farm in Athens, Wisconsin. In its 9th season of production, StoneyAcres is a highly diversified organic family farm focusing on CSA but featuring maple syrup, pastured beef, pork and eggs, organic small grains, and seasonal farm to table pizza.

Tony Schultz has a B.S. in Education from UW-Madison and taught for several years before returning to the family farm. He is active in the Wisconsin Farmers Union and on the Board of both the Center for Integrated Agricultural Systems at UW-Madison, and Family Farm Defenders. He is the president of the Wausau Farmers Market and recently organized the Wausau Area Winter Farmers Market to expand access to local foods regionally and seasonally.
