A HOME GR/OWN NEIGHBORHOOD

A Urban farmer sells produce to Food Hub (D)

B Foreclosed home repurposed by CBO as social enterprise community cafe

C Foreclosed home & vacant lot sold for urban homesteading

D Food Hub aggregates & resells city/neighborhood produce, generationg income for growers. Runs compost operation at (L) - former factory parking lot

E Foreclosed home kept by City for commercial development

F High value potential affordable housing site

G Heavily wooded vacant lot converted to pocket park - no value for farming

H New community garden controlled by residents of blocks 6 and 7

I Farm stand generates income; neighborhood meeting spot for blocks 2, 6 and 7

J Garden site now controlled by adjacent corner store, increasing healthy food in store

K Vacant lot now controlled by non-profit, sells to Food Hub

L Former factory parking lot, now compost operation using neighborhood and Food Hub food/garden residuals

M Vacant factory converted to aquaponics operation. Produce sold to Food Hub. Fish processed and sold by Food Hub.