

National Homicide Review Training and Technical Assistance Project

About the Project

Under contract with the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), the Milwaukee Homicide Review Commission (MHRC) will provide training and technical assistance to U.S. police departments and other criminal justice professionals in urban districts. The purpose of the project is to build the capacity of local jurisdictions to prevent homicides and related events (e.g., nonfatal shootings and near fatal domestic violence incidents) using a "Homicide Review" prevention model. Homicide Reviews are a proven community policing strategy that the City of Milwaukee, the Milwaukee Police Department, and its partners have used since 2005 (see www.milwaukee.gov/hrc). Training participants will learn how to start a homicide review in their jurisdiction and are eligible to receive in-person and long-distance technical assistance.

Spring 2016 Milwaukee Trainings
February 16-17, 2016
April 19-20, 2016

Sign up for a free 2-day training in Milwaukee, WI. Training space is limited. Eligible participants include any urban jurisdiction in the U.S. with a demonstrated need and capability.

Onsite Trainings Available

Can't come to Milwaukee? We can provide a training in your jurisdiction as well as long-distance training and technical assistance. Contact us to learn more.

To apply for the trainings use this Application Form.
Travel and lodging costs are covered in this training.

Any questions can be directed to:

Michael Totoraitis

Violence Prevention Research Coordinator, MHRC

mtotor@milwaukee.gov

414-286-6276