WALKER TO BE SWORN IN AT PUBLIC CEREMONY

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker will be sworn in to a new term as Milwaukee County Executive later today. Walker was elected to a third term on Tuesday, April 1, 2008.

“In our next term we will push for great innovations through improvements in our workforce, expansion of our partnerships, and better use of our assets,” said Walker. “I want a Milwaukee County where people can afford to live and work and learn and retire. And I want a place where businesses can stay and grow and create more jobs.”

Walker will be joined at the ceremony by family, friends, members of the County Board, other elected officials and community leaders, along with members of the general public as he takes the oath of office and shares his vision to make Milwaukee County great again.

The ceremony will be held in the evening to allow for greater access for members of the public who wish to attend. Light refreshments will be provided after the ceremony. Parking is available on the north end of the War Memorial Center.

DATE: Monday, April 14, 2008
