FIRE CADET PROGRAM

Are you interested in a challenging, yet rewarding career?

*Consider the Fire Cadet Program!
Apply by November 25, 2013*

What is a Fire Cadet?

A job as a Fire Cadet is a gateway to a firefighting career with the Milwaukee Fire Department (MFD). As a Fire Cadet, you will be a full-time employee that performs various support functions while completing training to become a firefighter.

Fire cadets earn an annual salary of $23,205 ($22,862 for non Milwaukee residents) and receive full health and dental benefits.

Fire Cadets also aid in increasing the diversity of the MFD by bringing new ideas and problem solving skills to the fire service. The Milwaukee Fire Department strives to develop a department that is reflective of the City of Milwaukee.

What Will You Do as a Fire Cadet?

- Begin work towards an associates degree by completing college credits and maintaining a minimum 2.0 college GPA. Tuition benefits are available.
- Gain an understanding of the Milwaukee Fire Department as a whole, through rotating assignments. Work locations include engine houses, administration, and more.
- Become a nationally registered emergency medical technician with the opportunity to go on to become a Paramedic.
- Earn certification as a Level 1 Firefighter.

Your Career as a Firefighter.

Upon successful completion of the Fire Cadet Program, reaching age 21, and passing a physical ability test, Fire Cadets will be placed in the next scheduled MFD recruit class. Recruits receive a salary of $30,061.

After successfully completing training, recruits are promoted to the rank of firefighter. The current starting salary for firefighter is $40,081 with regular pay increases up to $66,708. Firefighters work a flexible schedule and receive leave, insurance, and education benefits.
