

You're Invited!

Are you interested in making a difference in your city? We are now accepting applications for the position of Operations Driver Worker. Applications will be accepted from Monday, October 3, 2016 to Friday, October 21, 2016. To apply those interested can visit our website at: www.jobaps.com/mil.

AND we are taking the show on the road! The City of Milwaukee Department of Employee Relations Staffing Services Division is hosting information sessions where you can find out more!

Questions that will be answered:

- What is an Operations Driver Worker and what are the minimum requirements?
- How do I apply?
- What is involved in the testing process?
- How much does it cost to obtain a CDL license? What potential financial resources are available to me to help pay for a CDL or training?

Representatives from the Department of Employee Relations, the Department of Public Works, Employ Milwaukee and community partners (UMOS and Maximus) will be on hand to answer questions.
