Alderman Terry L. Witkowski Named 2006 Man of the Year by the South Side Business Club of Milwaukee, Inc.
Mayor Tom Barrett to Present the Award Thursday

The South Side Business Club of Milwaukee, Inc. will honor Milwaukee Ald. Terry L. Witkowski as its 2006 Man of the Year, recognizing his outstanding service to the Milwaukee community.

“I am truly honored to receive this prestigious award presented by the South Side Business Club Inc., and I’m humbled that they chose me,” said Ald. Witkowski.

Mayor Tom Barrett will present Ald. Witkowski with the prestigious honor on Thursday, November 9, 2006 at 5:30 p.m. at the Porterhouse Restaurant (900 West Layton Ave).

The South Side Business Club of Milwaukee, Inc. was founded in 1936. The club’s objectives are to take an active role in the legislative process of the city, county, and state, and to protect, promote, and stimulate a better civic life for members of the club and the community.

Ald. Witkowski has served as alderman of the 13th District since 2003. Prior to election, he served as the longtime Safety Director for the Milwaukee Safety Commission and the Milwaukee Police Department. He is actively affiliated with many organizations, which include the National Safety Council, Wisconsin School Safety Coordinators Association, AAA Advisory Board, Wisconsin Highway Safety Coordinator Association, Milwaukee Survive Alive House Foundation, the Milwaukee Society of Polish Alliance, and numerous other organizations.
