City of Milwaukee
Deferred Compensation Plan Fee Explanation

Our commitment to best-in-class services, low costs and fee transparency

There are fees and expenses associated with all retirement plans and investment programs. These costs help pay for the administration and operation of the Plan, as well as a host of services provided to participants including account maintenance, quarterly statements, online and phone-based account access, Plan communications, investment education and many more.

The City of Milwaukee Deferred Compensation Board, staff and trusted expert advisors work hard to deliver a high-quality tax-deferred savings plan to employees at the lowest cost possible. And we believe every Plan participant deserves complete transparency when it comes to understanding the fees associated with servicing the Plan.

The information in this brochure provides answers to these three important questions:

What are the fees for Plan administrative, professional and investment services?

Recordkeeping fees
These fees pay for administration and operation of the Plan by its recordkeeper, Voya Financial. Services include daily account maintenance, quarterly statements, convenient online and phone-based account access, Plan communications, investment education and more.

• $58.50 annual fee; this is broken down into payments of approximately $4.88 per month as shown on quarterly statements¹

Administrative and professional fees
• Administrative and professional fees include trustee/custodian, consulting, audit, outside legal, and insurance costs, as well as City staff costs, office expenses, and Board and staff education, professional association and travel costs. These administrative and professional fees¹ are updated and reported in an annual statement delivered to Plan participants each year, typically in February. Administrative and professional fees were 0.12% of Plan assets for 2018, 0.125% for 2017, 0.18% for 2016, 0.23% for 2015, and 0.18% for 2014.

Investment fees
Investment fees cover ongoing charges for managing the assets of the investment funds. To help ensure participants benefit from low investment fees, the Plan’s investment options include only institutional share classes.

Fees for each individual investment option are paid directly from participant accounts and are allocated daily.

The following chart lists these estimated fees by option beginning December 31, 2018.
