

ATTENTION

ETHICS CODE CHANGES

Please note that the Common Council has revised the Ethics Code to provide for new late filing fees. The fees and penalties for filing the Statement of Economic Interest form after the February 28th due date are as follows:

- $25 if 11 days or more late
- $5 per day for forms filed more than 30 days late
- Up to a maximum of $100 in daily late fees

Employees, city officials and board/commission members who have not filed Statement of Economic Interest Forms within 45 days of the deadline may be referred to the City Attorney for charges in Municipal Court, with a conviction subject to a forfeiture of $250 to $1,000 and imprisonment for failure to pay the forfeiture of 10 to 40 days.