Mayor, State Rep., DOA Secretary and School Board Director to Discuss MPS Issues in Public Forum Tonight

*Common Council Members Kovac, Coggs and Hamilton to Co-Host Public Event
Tonight at their Alma Mater – Riverside University High School*

A public forum centered on the question “How can MPS better educate the children of Milwaukee?” will be held from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday, October 1) in the auditorium at Riverside University High School, 1615 E. Locust St.

Mayor Tom Barrett, state Department of Administration Secretary Michael Morgan, state Rep. Tamara Grigsby, and MPS School Board Director Larry Miller will take part in a panel discussion hosted by Riverside graduates Alderman Nik Kovac, Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs, and Alderman Ashanti Hamilton.

Alderman Kovac said members of the public – including students and parents – are encouraged to attend the event, part of which will feature participants addressing the following four questions:

- Too many MPS students are not graduating, and too many of those who do graduate are not proficient in math and reading. Why?

-More-

MPS Public Forum/ADD ONE

- What on-the-ground, system-wide changes need to occur to change that?
- What governance structure could best achieve those changes?
- How can MPS best position itself to receive federal funds?

The panelists will each address these questions during the first hour, and then will take questions from the audience for the last half hour.
