Two Fish & Five Loaves Brings Food Philosophy to Midtown

Alderman Joe Davis, Mayor Barrett Celebrate Grand Opening of New Restaurant

Ald. Joe Davis, Sr. will join Mayor Barrett TODAY at 6:00 p.m. to help celebrate the opening of Two Fish & Five Loaves, a unique eatery with a strong community focus. The restaurant is based on a spiritual philosophy to food, health and community and the menu is spearheaded by Executive Chef, Sharrie Bell.

“We are very excited to add this unique business to the Midtown area. The growth and development of the neighborhood shows the commitment of businesses and the community to create a successful climate for economic development in the district,” Ald. Davis said. “Midtown has become a symbol of how successful business growth can sustain and reinvent a community.”

The restaurant, located at 5216 W. Capitol Dr., hosts its grand opening celebration from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. TODAY, February 5, with a special celebration ceremony at 6:00 p.m.
