MEDIA ADVISORY

Midtown "Day Watch" Neighborhood Walk Happening Tuesday

Alderman Robert J. Bauman and neighborhood residents will be joined by Milwaukee Police Department officers and Department of Neighborhood Services officials tomorrow (Tuesday, July 13) for another high visibility noon hour neighborhood walk in the Midtown neighborhood. The walk will also include members of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 2466 W. McKinley Ave.

Media coverage is invited.

Tuesday's walk is one in a series that Alderman Bauman has conducted after a pattern of daytime burglaries emerged earlier this year in the Cold Spring Park, Historic Concordia, Midtown, Merrill Park and Avenues West neighborhoods.

The alderman has said the walks are meant not only as a high visibility response to the criminal element, but also as a prime opportunity to talk with residents and others who may also have information that can be helpful to police.

The walk will begin at 12 p.m. at N. 24th Pl. and W. McKinley Ave.
