Alderman Bauman to Hold Midtown "Day Watch" Neighborhood Walk Thursday

Milwaukee Police Department officers and Department of Neighborhood Services officials will join Alderman Robert J. Bauman and neighborhood residents on Thursday, April 8 for a high visibility noon hour neighborhood walk in the Midtown neighborhood. The walk is one in a series that Alderman Bauman is holding after it became clear earlier this year that daytime burglaries were increasing in the Cold Spring Park, Historic Concordia, Midtown, Merrill Park and Avenues West neighborhoods.

"The burglaries have occurred during normal daytime work hours while honest, hard working people are at work," the alderman said. "So our Day Watch walk-throughs are meant not only as a high visibility response to the criminals, but also as an excellent opportunity to talk with residents and others who may also have information that can be helpful to police."

The walk will begin at 12 p.m. at N. 24th Pl. and W. McKinley Ave.

WHAT: Day Watch walk with Ald. Bauman
