Community Action Day Walk-Through to Include Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs

A neighborhood walk-through tomorrow (Wednesday, July 14) to include Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs, officers from District Five of the Milwaukee Police Department, officials from the Department of Public Works and the Department of Neighborhood Services, the Community Prosecution Unit, neighborhood stakeholders and others is part of the lead up to Saturday's United South Neighborhood Community Action Day.

Alderwoman Coggs said tomorrow's walk-through will start at 1:00 p.m. at La Follette School, 3239 N. 9th St.

Media coverage is invited.

The United South Neighborhood Community Action Day is on Saturday, July 17 – one of several Milwaukee Police Department Community Action Days happening in the city for the first time in 2010 – and is being sponsored specifically by the MPD's 5th District. The event will go from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and will be focused on the area bounded by Keefe Ave. on the north, Burleigh St. on the south, N.15th St. on the west and N. 9th St. on the east.
