MEDIA ADVISORY

A group of dedicated community members have made football equipment available to three squads of the Alexander Hamilton Area Junior Wildcats football team, who joined the All-American Youth Football League (AAYFL) this year. The team, sponsored by Alexander Hamilton High School, received $15,000 in donation from the Salvation Army for the equipment.

The equipment will be handed out on Saturday, August 14 beginning at 9:00 a.m. at Fairview Elementary School.

Hamilton High School's Jeff Wallack, the football program's head coach, joined Julian Gladney (a Milwaukee fire fighter) of the Salvation Army and other residents to work with MPS to coordinate the program and the grant funding.

"I commend the Salvation Army on their generosity and am very appreciative of the coordinated efforts of these dedicated residents," Alderman Joe Dudzik said. The equipment distribution will take place in his district this Saturday.

This is the team's first year in the AAYFL league.
