President Hines, Mayor Barrett Urge School Support from St. Marcus Rooftop

Common Council President Willie L. Hines, Jr. and Mayor Tom Barrett will shout from the rooftop of St. Marcus School in Milwaukee this afternoon. St. Marcus Principal Henry Tyson, Pius XI High School Principal Melinda Skrade and Mitchell Middle School Principal Amanda Lamers are all spending five nights on the rooftop to highlight the fact that all three schools are finalists in the Kohl's Cares Facebook Contest.

"Not only as a city leader, but also as a father, I am urging people to vote for these three outstanding schools," says Hines, whose son is a student at St. Marcus. "Here are three schools that are equipping young men and women for success in life, and I am grateful to Kohl's for recognizing great education success stories in southeastern Wisconsin and around the nation."

Kohl's is giving away $10 million to the 20 schools who garner the most votes. All three schools are finalists and could win as much as $500,000 each in education funding.
