Meet Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs at African World Festival

Alderwoman Coggs will have a booth during tomorrow's festival at Maier Festival Park

Residents and visitors can meet and discuss issues with Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs during Saturday's African World Festival.

Alderwoman Coggs will have a booth open from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the festival. "I look forward to meeting and greeting people, and talking about issues that are important to them," she said, noting also that the booth will be stocked with informational brochures about various city services and programs.

The festival's opening ceremonies will be held at 1:45 p.m. at the Miller Stage.

Since its inception in 1982, African World Festival has been a celebration of African heritage and culture held on the shores of Lake Michigan at Maier Festival Park. The festival's mission has been to promote and share the culture and heritage of all people of African descent with the global community.

The festival features live music and entertainment, and visitors can also experience the cultural village, sample a variety of ethnic foods, shop at the Marketplace, and children can play in the Children's Village.
