Diversity Questions To Come Before Committee

Alds. Coggs, Wade and Hamilton call for discussion of Fire and Police diversity recruiting and retention

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs, Alderman Willie Wade and Alderman Ashanti Hamilton are drafting a communication file that requests that officials from the the Fire and Police Commission testify before the Public Safety Committee to discuss the city's current efforts at creating and sustaining a diverse workforce.

An investigation into the processes the departments enact to ensure the recruiting of minority candidates and the means by which they are retained in the departments will be a part of the discussion.

The public and the news media are invited to attend the April 21 meeting of the Public Safety Committee and to participate in the discussion of file #101577.
