Town Hall Meeting Tonight on Redistricting Plan

Alderman Bob Donovan will host a public meeting this evening in the church hall at Blessed Sacrament Parish, 3100 S. 41st St., to discuss aldermanic redistricting plans affecting the 8th District. The meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

“Efforts are underway to redraw district boundary lines so that a chunk of the 8th District would become part of another aldermanic district,” Alderman Donovan said. “Non-partisan staff from the city’s Legislative Reference Bureau will join me at the meeting and will be able to discuss the proposals and answer questions.”

One of the two proposed aldermanic district boundary plans that will be considered by the Common Council’s Judiciary and Legislation Committee next Monday was drafted by Alderman Donovan and would keep the 8th District “whole” or unchanged. The committee will consider that and another district boundary plan when it meets at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, June 27 in room 301-B at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

The proposed final aldermanic district plans will be discussed and voted on, and will then move to the full Common Council for a vote on July 6.
