Re: Historic Survey Publication Trust Account

Dear Alderman Donovan:

I am writing to follow up on my letter to you of August 2, 2012.

I have found no evidence to suggest any criminal conduct in connection with the expenditure of funds from the Historic Survey Publication Trust Account. No funds were spent on private purposes and there is no indication of any inappropriate connection between the Department of City Development and the contractor which was used.

I apologize for the delay in concluding my examination but I wanted to review contracts between the contractor and other public entities which took some time to gather.

Sincerely,

David A. Feiss
 Assistant District Attorney
