Andrea Williams is special guest host for Milwaukee celebration of life and work of Nelson Mandela

Tomorrow evening's public celebration event honoring the life and legacy of the late former South African President Nelson Mandela (Wednesday, December 18 in the Milwaukee Public Library's Centennial Hall, from 6:00-9:00 p.m.) will include a special guest host -- Ms. Andrea Williams of Jammin' 98.3 radio.

The celebration's primary host, Alderman Joe Davis, Sr., South Africa Honorary Consul for Wisconsin, said Ms. Williams is a "talented host and communicator who will bring a dynamic and energetic style to tomorrow's event." "I am very pleased to announce that Andrea Williams be our special guest host and that Jammin' 98.3 will be our media sponsor for the celebration event honoring Nelson Mandela," he said.

The community event is free and will include several speakers and video clips honoring the legendary and inspirational leader. Attendees can enter the hall starting at 5 p.m. through doors located at 733 N. 8th St.

Ms. Williams, executive producer and host of Our Issues Milwaukee, a local public affairs television program on Milwaukee's My 24 and CW 18, is also the news and public affairs director for five Lakefront Communication stations in Milwaukee. A graduate of Central State University, Ms. Williams is well known for her involvement in the community and regularly visits schools, and hosts community events and telethons for the United Negro College Fund.

Ms. Williams is a former six year veteran of the Milwaukee Bucks Energee! Dance Team and has spent the last 10 seasons as the Milwaukee Bucks Official Game Day Host.
