Milwaukee celebration of life and work of Nelson Mandela this evening

Alderman Joe Davis, Sr. will host a public celebration event TONIGHT (Wednesday, December 18) honoring the life and legacy of the late former South African President Nelson Mandela in the Milwaukee Public Library's Centennial Hall, from 6:00-9:00 p.m. (attendees can enter the hall starting at 5 p.m. through doors located at 733 N. 8th St.).

Alderman Davis, South Africa Honorary Consul for Wisconsin, said the event will feature a performance by the Northwest Jurisdictional Choir of the Church of God In Christ, as well as several speakers and video clips honoring the late South African president and leader.

The community event is free and all are encouraged to attend.

Alderman Davis said Ms. Andrea Williams of Jammin' 98.3 will be a special guest host for tonight's event, which is sponsored by GE Healthcare Services (Jammin' 98.3 is the event's media sponsor).

"This evening will be a truly uplifting experience as we end the mourning period and start celebrating and living the late Madiba's legacy," Alderman Davis said.
