Free haircuts to be offered during Sunday event for needy families

Alderman José G. Pérez is one of the supporting sponsors for an event on Sunday (February 17, 2013) where needy families will be offered free haircuts.

Several hair stylists have offered to donate their skills to provide haircuts free of charge to families participating in the St. Vincent de Paul Meal Ministry program. “I am very grateful to stylists Angelina Galicia, Brenda Garcia, Taylor Thorson, Kei Jay, and Debra Salinas for their kindness and generosity,” said Alderman Pérez. “Their selflessness and compassion for their fellow citizens is very uplifting, and I thank them.”

The event Sunday will take place from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the St. Vincent de Paul free meal program site, 931 W. Madison St.

Alderman Pérez said he also would like to thank Alexandria Alvarado from Molina Health Care, who will be providing resources at the event, as well as Hope House, which is donating personal hygiene products for the event. Members of the public are encouraged to donate clothing and hygiene products.

Participants will be able to win prizes at the event, and refreshments/treats will also be provided.

In addition to Alderman Pérez, other sponsors of the event are Milwaukee County Supervisor Peggy Romo West and the Latino Student Organization at the Milwaukee Area Technical College.
