MEDIA ADVISORY

Community invited to Monday candlelight vigil at Sikh Temple of Wisconsin

A candlelight vigil set for 8 p.m. on Monday, August 5 at the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin in Oak Creek will be a moving and uplifting way of remembering the victims of last year's deadly mass shooting, Alderman José G. Pérez said.

"I invite members of the community to join me and others as we come together with our Sikh brothers and sisters on the first anniversary to remember and honor the victims of last year's senseless and horrific shooting rampage," Alderman Pérez said. "The support and unity shown by the community in the wake of the shooting has been a healing ingredient for the Sikh community, and it is important that it continue."

Those planning to attend the vigil are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets. Activities will include music, choir, and remarks by local and national leaders. Candles will be provided, courtesy of Walgreens.
