MEDIA ADVISORY

Event Tuesday to celebrate 100th birthday of Dr. James Cameron

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs and America's Black Holocaust Museum, as well as other dignitaries and community members, will host a special event next week to celebrate the 100th birthday of the late Dr. James Cameron, a noted civil rights activist, historian and author. The free, public event will take place at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, February 25 in the first floor rotunda at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

Born on February 25, 1914, Dr. Cameron survived a lynching in 1930 and dedicated his life to remembrance and reconciliation. He passed away in 2006 but his legacy, including founding the America's Black Holocaust Museum, scholarship, writing and activism, continues to be of interest to people around the world.

Please visit America's Black Holocaust Virtual Museum at www.abhmuseum.org to learn more about Dr. Cameron.
