Rich and Diverse Array of Artwork to be featured during Gallery Night and Day

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs said two Gallery Night exhibits tomorrow night (Friday, January 17) and Saturday (January 18) in the 6th District will showcase artistic talent and expression across topics and media.

In Bronzeville the Martin Luther King Economic Development Corporation is showcasing the artwork of Muneer Bahauddeen at the King Drive Commons Gallery and Studio, 2775 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. The free event will be held Friday from 5:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

A posting describes Muneer Bahauddeen's exhibition as featuring ceramic and mixed media. "With the use of color line and texture, the artist pays homage to African, African American, and South American cultures," it states.

Entertainment will include live jazz by Larry Moore Trio, and a performance presented by Hansberry Sands Theater Company. Refreshments will also be a provided.

At RedLine Milwaukee, 1422 N. 4th St., "Transitions in Perspective – Myth and Mirror," includes works of RedLine mentors Nirmal Raja and Dara Larson which reflect upon travel in southern India. Raja and Larson shared a year of discussions to create prints, sculpture, video, and installation that explore myth and mirror, place and memory, pattern and color. The exhibition will run through March 8.

The RedLine event will include gallery walks from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday
