MEDIA ADVISORY

Milwaukee Rising open house will showcase rehabbed Common Ground homes

Potential buyers and members of the media can get their first look at three homes rehabilitated and offered for sale as a part of Common Ground's Milwaukee Rising Initiative, which aims to restore foreclosed homes donated by banks and sell them to responsible homeowners.

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II will join Common Council President Michael J. Murphy and officials from Common Ground in congratulating Randy Jones, the new owner of one of the rehabilitated homes, in a press conference at the home, 2528 N. 48th St. on Saturday, May 31 at 10:00 a.m.

The rehabbed home is located in Alderman Stamper's 15th Aldermanic District in the Sherman Park neighborhood. The three homes are the first that Common Ground has rehabbed without the use of Neighborhood Stabilization Program funds.
