
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR INFORMATION CALL

June 10, 2014

Ald. Russell W. Stamper, II
(414) 286-2659

Alderman Stamper invites residents to discuss proposed Lee School sale

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II will hold a second public town hall meeting tomorrow (Wednesday, June 11) to discuss the proposed sale of Lee School to St. Marcus School.

Alderman Stamper is encouraging anyone interested to please join him for the discussion at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the cafeteria of the Northside YMCA, 1350 W. North Ave.

“Education and the future of our children are such important issues,” Alderman Stamper said. “That is why I am asking community members to please join me and express any opinions or concerns they may have.”

St. Marcus, the operator of an existing school at 2215 N. Palmer St., has expressed interest in opening an additional campus at the former Lee School at 921 W. Meinecke Ave.

The proposed sale of the Lee School building to St. Marcus School will be considered by both the Milwaukee Board of School Directors and the Common Council.

-30-